multiple minority identities. We published the first community resource guide of services for people with disabilities and their families. It is in both English and Spanish. We educate employers about accessibility, transportation, and other possible barriers to employment and what accommodations will be needed to enable disabled employees to maximize their success.
Inclusion in the Philanthropic Sector:
Respectability does free consulting for foundations and nonprofits on disability issues. Our consulting is especially important for bridging the gaps between the different social justice funders who are working on racism, sexism, and inequality but do not know about the economic burdens of people with disabilities. We advise funders on how to make their websites accessible and how to hire and retain people with disabilities, as well as how to welcome, respect and include people with disabilities.

Pt X, Line 2	The organization is exempt from income taxes under Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3) and applicable Maryland statutes. No provision for income taxes is required at December 31, 2017, as the Organization had no net unrelated business income. The organization follows FASB ASC 740 Income Taxes, the authoritative guidance relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. These provisions provide consistent guidance for the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements and prescribe a threshold of "more likely than not" for recognition and derecognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Organization performed an evaluation of uncertain tax positions for the year ended December 31, 2017, and determined that there were no matters that would require recognition in the financial statements or which may have any effect on its tax- exempt status. As of December 31, 2017, the statute of limitations for tax years 2014 through 2016 remains open with federal and Maryland authorities.
